KIDNAPING CASE.

H. C. Henderson, in Jail at Dallas, Tex., Asserts He is One of the Cudahy Kidnapers.

HE DECLINES TO STATE THE DETAILS.

The Prisoner is Eagerly Cautious as to What He Says Concerning the Matter.

It is Probable That E. A. Cudahy and His Son Will Go to Dallas and Attempt to Identify Henderson.

Dallas, Tex., April 15.—There was a meeting at the county jail Sunday between County Attorney George W. Shields, of Omaha, and H. C. Henderson, who asserts that he is one of the Cudahy kidnapers. This meeting was arranged Saturday on a statement from Henderson to Shields that he would probably talk after having consulted his attorneys.

Mr. Shields said Sunday that Henderson still declined to make a detailed statement of the actual connection with the kidnaping and that his talk was full of generalities and had very little of the details that he wanted. He also said that Henderson is very cautious as to what he says about this case, though he will converse volubly on other subjects connected with Omaha.

To Identify the Prisoner. Mr. Shields said that it was probable that E. A. Cudahy and his son would come to Dallas within the next few days to see Henderson.

Omaha, Neb., April 15.—E. A. Cudahy said Sunday that his going to Dallas, Tex., would depend entirely on the result of County Attorney Shields' visit to that city in connection with the alleged confession of H. C. Henderson as to his complicity in the abduction of the Cudahy boys last December. Should it become practically certain that Henderson was one of the kidnapers, Mr. Cudahy and his son will leave for Dallas during the present week, when the young man will attempt to identify Henderson.

ON THE CROSSING.

A Party of Four People Run Down by a Train, Three Being Killed and One Injured.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., April 15.—A party of four people, while crossing the tracks of the Lehigh Valley railroad at South Wilkesbarre, were run down by the Buffalo express, going north. Three of the party were killed and one injured. The dead are: Morris O'Connell, Mrs. Morris O'Connell and Frank Cramer. Injured: Frank Cramer.

O'Connell and his wife were entering the Cramer couple, whose home is in Bradford county. During the evening they visited relatives in this city, and at 1:30 Sunday morning started to return to the home of the O'Connells. When they reached the crossing at South Wilkesbarre, the freight train was blocking it. As soon as the freight train moved on the party started to cross the tracks but did not realize the approaching passenger train from an opposite direction. The express train failed to see the people on the track until the locomotive was close upon them. The two women were hurled a great distance in the air, and when picked up were dead. Both bodies were badly mangled. Mr. O'Connell had both legs and one arm broken. He was taken to a hospital, where he died in a short time. Mr. Cramer was able to step back from the tracks before being struck with full force and escaped with slight injuries.

IN HIS OWN BEHALF.

The Prosecution in the Ripley Case Retested and the Defendant Was Called to the Stand.

Frankfort, Ky., April 15.—The prosecution in the Ripley case rested at noon Saturday. Wharton Golden was on the stand. He repeated the story that he told on the stand at the Powers trial at Georgetown in all its details, telling of the assistance he gave in bringing armed parties from the mountains to Frankfort and of threats of Taylor and Caleb Powers against the life of Goebel and other Democrats. His only statement concerning the prisoner at the bar was that he saw Ripley during the month of January, 1900, in the office of Adjt. Gen. Collier, and they were talking about furnishing guns to Ripley's company.

The trial of Garnett D. Ripley was resumed Monday. The prosecution was the first witness for the defense. Ex-Gov. Bradley and Judge W. H. Yost could not be seen Sunday, but it is known they positively refused to testify. Ripley made the statement to them that Gov. Taylor used to live, or "Goebel has not 24 hours to live," or "Goebel has 24 hours to live," and that Ripley did not accompany it with any such explanation as Lawyer O'Neal gave Saturday in outlining the case. He said that he was a story that Bradley and Yost, in their testimony before the grand jury, told much more than they did on the stand Sunday. The prosecution asked questions bearing on only the one point, and the defense did not cross-examine them.

DILATORY TACTICS.

Conduct of Ministers in Negotiations With the Chinese Causes Adverse Criticism.

ESPECIALLY AMONG MILITARY MEN.

Even Now the Meeting of the Envoys Are Postponed for the Most Trivial Causes.

The Missionary Statements Regarding a Rebellion in Mongolia Are Not Supported by the Facts, Says Prince Ching.

Peking, April 15.—Prince Ching says all his reports go to show that the missionary statements regarding a rebellion in Mongolia are not supported by the facts. Neither does he believe that the rebellion of Gen. Tung Fu Hsian amounts to much. "It is the object of certain elements," he asserts, "to make it seem that China is in a condition of constant riot, rendering it unsafe for the foreign troops to be withdrawn. Those who have this view will magnify a village quarrel into a big rebellion. The missionaries, naturally timid, take these rumors in good faith."

The conduct of the ministers of the powers over the negotiations with the Chinese plenipotentiaries causes much adverse comment among the military authorities.

Postponed Meetings. Their dilatory tactics have prevented what might have been accomplished two months ago. Even now the meetings of the ministers are postponed for the most trivial causes.

For instance, the desire of one minister to go on a picnic to the tomb of the Ming dynasty prevented the holding of a meeting for a number of days. Then Mr. DeGers and other ministers insisted upon celebrating Easter and this week was consumed. In a third case an unnecessary visit by one minister to Tientsin held up the negotiations for four days. These are fair illustrations of what has been almost continuous from the beginning.

EMPEROR KWANG SU.

Notified That His Return to Peking Is Urgently Desired—He Will Be Shown Every Courtesy.

Peking, April 15.—Komura Yutaro, the Japanese minister, accompanied by Gen. Yamaguchi, the Japanese commander, recently called upon Prince Ching and notified him that the return of Emperor Kwang Su to Peking was urgently desired.

Prince Ching was informed that the emperor's wishes would be respected, the foreign powers, and that every courtesy would be shown him. It was pointed out to the Chinese plenipotentiary that the emperor's return was of the highest possible importance as affecting the maintenance of the integrity of the Chinese empire, and that he should come accompanied by every available soldier, by at least 20,000 men if possible.

Troops Needed in Manchuria. These troops, it was further contended by the Japanese minister, must be sent to Manchuria, as the Russians reported great disturbances there, and that was not right. The task of quelling the trouble should be thrown upon the shoulders of one nation. Finally, Prince Ching was assured that if the 20,000 Chinese troops could not suppress the disorders in Manchuria, other powers would send an international force to co-operate with China, which all powers regarded as a friendly power.

No reply having been received to this communication, Li Hung Chang was Sunday noon, and he was expected to tell that Emperor Kwang Su must give an immediate answer.

Short Talks on Advertising

By Charles Austin Bates

The best paper in a community always brings ample returns to its advertisers. The best paper covers the cream of the trade in any section.

Mark Twain says: "Behold the fool who says: 'Put not all these eggs in one basket,' which is but a manner of saying, 'Scatter your money and your attention;' but the wise man says: 'Put all these eggs in the one basket and watch that basket!'"

"Which the same" applies equally to newspapers. Put your ad. in the best paper, and then watch the paper and the ad. Have a system of checking the returns received, and be very sure of this much:

If the ad. doesn't pay, the fault is in the ad. or the goods or the store—not in the paper.

It will do no good to advertise something that nobody wants. Find out there is a demand for and advertise that. You can create a demand for an article if you have time and money enough to keep up a continual hammering. For the retail dealer this is a waste of energy, because there are dozens of things in every stock for which a demand already exists.

Don't say what everybody else in your line is saying, and never publish a general ad. There are three hundred and sixty-five days in the year, on each of which you can talk in the newspapers. Don't talk about one shoe in each line and give prices. The newspaper will carry what you say right into the best homes in the community. It will give your words a thousand tongues. Out of one thousand people, probably fifteen need shoes every day. If you tell them about your stock, you will surely get your proportion of the trade. If you don't, you won't get it.

It's a simple proposition, and as true as it's simple.

An Open Letter.

We desire to say that our business since January 1st has passed the mark anticipated. We wish to be frank, therefore we are not attempting to talk to business people and put it in the form of a polished essay. The advertisement for our merchandise is different from your competitors. It is frank, provided that the retailer is known to be reliable. Does not a good deal of advertising appear to you as though it were written by one who is lying too freely in fine words? It seems to say something that means nothing. Names are invented for goods that have no bearing whatever to the materials, turned and twisted until they are no longer relevant, all of which is done to tone the product, because the product hasn't enough of it. Fine feathers make fine birds, but fine words do not make fine goods. We are strong believers in advertising because it is a good thing, but advertising doesn't pay unless constructed on a proper basis, and that is to plainly tell people what you have to sell, and sell it as low as is consistent with legitimate business methods.

Our spring importation of Dress Goods, White Goods, Carpets, Mattings and Housekeeping Goods generally is complete. Come and learn prices, which will be found to be as cheap as the cheapest, quality considered. Respectfully,
GEORGE COX & SON.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and restoring the system to health. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that fails to cure. Send for full particulars. Address: DR. J. C. American flags—nearly two tons of them—have been contracted for in Chicago with "rush orders" that on July 4 the red, white and blue may flutter from every school house in Porto Rico teaching the lesson of Independence Day to young and old alike in the island.

Similar arrangements, it is understood, are now under way for the placing of a large order of flags for the Philippines.

The Secretary of the Treasury has approved a design for the new ten dollar legal tender United States note. Prominent in the center of the face of the note is the picture of an American buffalo, as shown in a photograph of a fine mounted specimen in the National Museum.

On the right and left ends are the portraits of Lewis and Clark; the next scaling from the left is the portrait of the explorer of the Northwest. By the side of each is a faithful figure extending a palm over the pictures.

The figures and letters denoting the denominations are quite large and conspicuous. The note is considered as artistic as any that has been issued in many years.

Fifty prominent society women of North Indianapolis, members of an Anti-vice Association, marched in a body to the drug store where illegal liquor traffic was suspected. Each wore a Carrie Nation hat and an ornament. A recent Greek law is to the effect that every owner of a dog shall pay a yearly tax of 12 drachmas. Those who do not pay in time are condemned by the new law to pay double the tax. King George went regularly to the police in order to register his four dogs and pay their taxes. But the official found that His Majesty owed for the taxes a sum of 48 drachmas and had been fined another 48 drachmas for having delayed payment. His Majesty has paid 96 drachmas for his dogs.
